

Ensuring Customer Success

Fluid thinking. Solid results.

Commitment

Whatever the situation. Whatever the challenge. Rice is the company you can count on to do the job right; to achieve the results you demand; and to eclipse your highest expectations. Your success underlies all we do.

What we do

Rice Resource Technologies is one of Canada's most comprehensive, multi-dimensional providers of world-class products, manufacturing and design services to improve project efficiency and performance.

We deliver seamless solutions to both the everyday – and the seemingly insurmountable – challenges faced by clients in the environmental, geotechnical, oil & gas, natural resources and industrial sectors. It's what we've been doing for over 65 years.

Ingenuity

Whatever your application, Rice has the products you need. If we don't, we'll create them. Many products now considered to be the industry-standard were developed by the team at Rice.

Our Products

Today, Rice's catalogue has grown to include thousands of items. While our products are diverse, they consistently meet the highest quality standards and have been proven to perform in the harshest real-world environments.
